COLLEGE COUNCIL and ELECTIONS

The point has already been made in the pages of earlier newsletters that Lansdowne will be as vital and as interesting as its members make it. The College Council is the body which determines the nature and direction of our programmes, and is the concern, then, of all of us.

Three positions on Council are presently open; two of these are new ones created by Council at the end of last year - Social Co-ordinator and Athletics Co-ordinator. These two positions may be held by any member of the College, resident or non-resident. There is also a vacancy for a non-resident representative; persons nominated for this position and those nominating must be non-residents. The closing date for nominations is 9 October, 1970; elections will be held on 16 October.

The Council and the College need your support through participation in these elections.

COUNCIL NOTES -

At its September meeting, the College Council:

- began investigation of the possibility of a College yearbook;
- continued to negotiate with Food Services for non-Resident meal passes;
- approved the following hours for the use of lounges by members provided the rooms haven't been booked for other activities:

| | | |
|----------------|---|-------------|
| Seminar Lounge | - | to 10 p.m. |
| Games Room | - | to midnight |
| Lower Lounge | - | to midnight |

- approved details of forthcoming films, programs and dances.

COUNCIL PROFILES -

Ian Britt, Non-Resident Representative - second-year Political Science major....born in Victoria....serving his first year on Council....concerned about changing the commuter atmosphere at UVic, through the College system....available through the General Office.

Fil Mauro, Men's Residence Representative - fourth-year Psychology majorattended Selkirk College....hobbies include tennis, judo, wrestling, boxing, coin collecting, skiing and photography....especially interested in developing a College yearbook and would like to have suggestions, ideas and assistance concerning it....available through the General Office or 206D Lansdowne.

Dr. Nelson C. Smith, Fellow - teaches Nineteenth-Century fiction and American Literature in the English Department...born in New York City; educated at Princeton, Oberlin College and the University of Washington....interests include movies, popular literature (mysteries, novels, science-fiction), professional sports, penguins and whales....will be primarily concerned with the Newsletter and the Film Series in his second year on Council.

Kenneth P. Stubbs, Non-Resident Representative - Geography honors student, specializing in climatology, geomorphology and resource geography....active in organizing and arranging the first two Lansdowne Balls...concerned with the development of an academic plan for the College and increasing communication between resident and non-resident members....hobbies include campus radio, drafting, sports (esp. soccer), music and "man's favorite sport"....can be contacted through the General Office.

PROGRAMMES and ACTIVITIES -

Movies - Some 180 people attended the first movie of the "Novels into Film" series. Despite a delay caused by the non-delivery of equipment, All Quiet on the Western Front seemed to live up to its reputation as a classic.

The second film, Ernest Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls," starring Gary Cooper and Ingrid Bergman, will be shown in Mac 144 at 8 p.m. on October 18. Made in 1943, it tells of a man who learns of love, humanity and heroism amid the battles of the Spanish Civil War. Tickets - 40¢ for members - will be available in the General Office during the week of October 12 - 16 and at the door. There will be no further mail notice of this event.

Series tickets for the entire series will be available after October 12. Advantages include a savings on single-ticket prices, special discounts on a special feature under negotiation for December, and possibly a special showing of three short films on the nature of movies and movie-making.

In order to keep ticket prices this low, help is needed to publicize the films to non-members. Volunteers to make posters please contact the General Office.

Dinner-Discussion - These programs are designed to enable members to meet informally with University and Community figures over dinner and coffee. Guests have dinner in the Commons Block about 5:30, and then adjourn for coffee and conversation in the Seminar Lounge. Residents and Non-residents are invited to join the visitors for dinner or afterwards.

On Tuesday, October 20, Lansdowne will be host to

Dr. R. Haig-Brown, Chancellor, University of Victoria,
Dean J. Climenhaga, Dean of Faculty of Arts & Science,
L.C. McKenzie, Q.C., Board of Governors,
Dr. David Stafford of the History Department,
Dr. James Hendrickson, Head of History Department.
Mr. Trevor Matthews, Assistant to the President.

Anyone willing to assist with the preparations of dinner discussions is invited to contact Mr. C. Cowan in his Lansdowne College Office. Posters are also needed for these events.

We are also considering the possibility of sponsoring special lectures on topics of major interest - details forthcoming.

Hockey - Hamburger Hockey, comprised of four teams, will start on Wednesday night, October 2nd. Two games per week will be played in the George Pearkes Arena until April (except during December and reading week) - Thursday nights, 11:15 to 12:45 and Wednesday nights, 11:30 to 1:00. A final all-star game between Lansdowne and Craigdarroch will contribute points for the Jackman Trophy which Craigdarroch presently holds. Also, special games will be arranged for girls who want to challenge the men. Everybody is welcome to come and enjoy these games which are now a familiar part of our College spirit.

Non-residents who want to play should see Bill Christie in 406 Block D or leave him a message in the College office. Fees are $5.00 per term.
